

In today's globally connected and digital world, every company will experience a crisis at a some stage of its development. Corporate crises raise many legal issues — from managing potential liabilities to deciding what can be disclosed to the media. The ability to control a crisis at an early stage helps a void reputational and financial losses.

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer — one of the leading global law firms, and WKB WKB Wierciński, Kwieciński, Baehr — one of largest Polish law firms, and Polish Corporate Lawyers Association (PSPP) — the only association on the Polish market to represent interests of in-house lawyers, would like to invite you to webinar on the subject of:

MANAGING A GLOBAL CRISIS LESSONS LEARNED FROM GLOBAL MASS CLAIMS

Based on our experience, we will share our thoughts on how you can protect your business by identifying and managing risks before they grow further.

When: 26 May

Time: 11 a.m.- 12.30 p.m. CET (including a Q&A session)

Where: Teams platform

The speakers from Freshfields — dr Hans-Patrick Schroeder (Partner) and Eric Leikin (Principal Associate) will present the global trends in crisis management and give practical recommendations on how to deal with a crisis, based on their experience in working on the Dieselgate matter. The participants will find out how to deal with authorities, manage the totality of a project and communicate more effectively, among others. They are also invited to take part in a discussion following the presentation, which will be moderated by Aleksander Stawicki (Partner at WKB).
